I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS:

None

II. OTHER ITEMS:

1. Gates Lloyd's interest in the Security Reindoctrination Course has been well satisfied as a result of receiving tabulations from us and his discussing the matter further with me by phone. [] did an excellent job in preparing cumulative tabulations which were meaningful. We plan to release new quotas in January, omitting most of the small Offices within the Agency. To pick up the slack, we'll issue quotas slightly greater than room capacity.

2. [] visited our office to explain his need for information on participation by DIS personnel in language training analyzed in terms of career service designation. This is a variation from our normal practice of grouping trainees by office of assignment. We have agreed to furnish [] with tabulations reflecting activity during 1958. This is a lot of work, but I believe he needs the result.

3. FDD's Polish and Rumanian Reading Courses, which commenced in July 1958, are concluding this month, and preparations have been completed for starting comparable part-time courses in Hungarian and Czech in January 1959. Appropriate course information has been forwarded to OTR for review and approval as creditable training under CIA Regulation []. We may have one or two trainees from other offices who can be accommodated by FDD.

4. [] phoned to request record data relative to NEA's showing on recent 5% in-training reports. He is presently engaged in a close study of all facets of training as he finds the situation in his division. He will submit a report at an early date setting forth NEA's training problems, attainments, and shortcomings as well as recommendations for future action and emphasis under an integrated program.
